

Orienteering and recreation map Long Lake scale 1:15000

contour interval 5m

Basemap: Pat Dunlavey
Fieldwork: Ross Burnett, Dave Donaldson,
Afan Jones, Peter MacKenzie, Bryan Chubb
Drafting: Dave Donaldson, Mark Innes
Peter MacKenzie, Bryan Chubb
Produced: 1998

This map was produced by the Yukon Orienteering Association for the 1998 Western Canadian Orienteering Championships with the financial assistance of the Whitehorse Anniversaries Commission.

For copies of this or any of the many maps in the Whitehorse area, or for information on orienteering, contact the YOA, 4061 4th Ave., Whitehorse, Yukon, Y1A 1H1.

LEGEND

- | | | |
|------------------------------|-----------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| Contour | Open land | Power line, Pole |
| Index contour | Open with scattered trees | Fence |
| Form line | Rough open land | High fence |
| Slope line | Rough open with scattered trees | Ruined fence |
| Earth bank | Forest | Crossable pipeline |
| Impassable cliff | Vegetation - slow run | Buildings |
| Erosion gully | Vegetation - walk | Ruin, Small ruin |
| Small erosion gully or ditch | Vegetation - fight | Tower, Small tower |
| Earth wall | Very distinct vegetation boundary | Cairn |
| Knolls, Small knoll | Distinct vegetation change | Cemetery, Field grave |
| Depression, Small depression | Parking area | Manmade feature |
| Pit | Major road | Residential area (out of bounds) |
| Broken ground | Road | |
| Boulder, Boulder cluster | Vehicle track | |
| Bare rock | Trail | |
| Stony ground | Small path | |
| River | Indistinct small path | |
| Lake, pond | Cutoff | |
| Marsh | Junction - Distinct, Indistinct | |
| Indistinct marsh | | |
| Uncrossable marsh | | |
| Narrow marsh | | |
| Stream | | |
| Intermittent stream | | |

In the Pines, In the Pines, Where the sun never shines; Where we go running when we want to hide. - The Triffids