

Orienteers take to the woods for the last time in 2010

Through the colourful, berry-filled forest below Grey Mountain ran 48 keen orienteers during the last meet of the season, on Wednesday, September 15. The bright evening sun streamed through the woods as people ran hither and yon, searching for controls whose faded colours matched the autumn leaves. Ross Burnett and Pippa McNeil again led the Advanced classes, Ken Kiemele edged Deb Kiemele on the Intermediate course, and young Elias Sagar blazed around the novice course with the fastest time of all. Picking low-bush cranberries delayed much the competition. The next Yukon orienteering race will likely be on skis, next February.
