

World Orienteering Day – May 23, 2018 B meet

79 Participants came out to celebrate World Orienteering Day on the Mount McIntyre Map. The new cul-de-sac at the end of War Eagle Way was used as the arena which opened up the Copperbelt Train Museum for some of the courses. The area is far from flat and the forest has quite a lot of deadfall so all courses had their challenges (some prefer the word gruelling).

Thanks to Afan Jones, Ross Burnett, Lorna Hutchinson, Georgi Pearson, Tracey Wallace and Anais Hildes for helping out.

Course organizers: Dave Hildes & Forest Pearson
